Benefits to Electronic Funds Transfer

Benefits to you:

- EFT is Green – it is an ECO-friendly way of giving
- Saves you time and money - fewer checks to write
- Helps you carry out your commitment in a timely manner, even when you are out of town
- It is easy to sign up, it is easy to change, it is easy to cancel
- You don't have to change your present banking relationship
- There is no service charge to you
- You will have an accurate monthly record of your contributions from your financial institution

Benefits to Pax Christi:

- Provides a more predictable cash flow for better planning
- Saves time and money associated with processing check and cash donations manually
- Helps the efficiency and accuracy of the parish database
- Secure and easy cash maintenance

To sign up, follow these simple steps:

- Fill out the special authorization form above. Attach a voided check or your savings account deposit slip if you designate that account.
- You may transfer funds to Pax Christi twelve or twenty-four times a year.
- After you submit your authorization, allow two weeks for the transfers to begin.
- You may increase, decrease, or terminate your agreement at any time by notifying Pax Christi, allowing reasonable time for the bank to act on your request.
- When you sign up for EFT, we will stop sending you envelopes, unless you specifically request them.
- We also have reusable "I Give via EFT" cards available in the back of the church that can be placed in the collection basket.
